

Pre-Approved Sites and Content:

KEPRO maintains a list of pre-approved internet-based training providers for the TBI Waiver Program only. Currently the following providers are approved and require no advance request for approval. Training documentation for approved internet-based training must include the employee's name, the name of the internet provider/trainer and a certificate or other documentation proving successful completion. The internet based training documentation must be maintained in the employee's file.

For CPR/First Aid

American Red Cross - First Aid

<http://www.redcross.org/>

American Heart Association - First Aid

<http://www.heart.org/HEARTORG/>

<http://www.onlineaha.org/index.cfm?fuseaction=main.courseCatalog>

American Health & Safety Institute

www.hsi.com

American CPR

www.americancpr.com

National Safety Council

www.nsc.org

EMS Safety

<https://www.emssafetyservices.com/>

Contact Us

Hours: 8:00 AM - 4:30 PM (Pacific Time)

Phone: (800) 215-9555 (toll free)

Fax: (949) 388-2776

Email: info@emssafety.com

Mailing Address:

EMS Safety Services, Inc.

1046 Calle Recodo Suite K

San Clemente, CA 92673

To find an instructor near you Google search at:

<https://access.emssafety.com/find-an-instructor>

Emergency Care & Safety Institute

www.ecsinstitute.org

ProTrainings

<http://www.protrainings.com>

Institute for Professional Care Education (IPCED) * First Aid -Activity 145 and 146)

<http://www.ipced.com>

Please remember that, a certified trainer must conduct CPR and First Aid training and include the successful hands on skills demonstration. Certification card or a copy of the card must be located in the employee file.

For Online Training

Essential Learning

Must be content that meets the requirements of the TBI Waiver Program. If you are not sure, submit an approval request to KEPRO.

<http://essentiallearning.com/>

In the Know

<http://intheknow.com>

Institute for Professional Care Education (IPCED) – online staff and caregiver training

<http://www.ipced.com>

Traumatic Brain Injury and Public Services in North Carolina

Online Continuing education modules (while there is some North Carolina specific information the primary focus of the modules is appropriate to anyone wanting brain injury information)

<http://www.nctbitraining.org/main.aspx>

Ohio Valley Center for Brain injury Prevention and Rehabilitation

Online web course on accommodation – free

Also a good brain injury and substance abuse resource

When entering information for certificate – unlicensed employees should enter N/A for license number and click Not Applicable button

<http://ohiovalley.org/informationeducation/accommodatingtbi/>

Pennsylvania Homecare Association Learning Center

The following online course titles are approved:

- Consumer Choice and Independent Living Philosophy
- Understanding IADLs
- Assistive Devices to Helps Seniors and People with Disabilities
- Maintaining Boundaries with a Consumer

<http://learningcenter.pahomecare.org>

Maine Direct Service Worker Training Program

The following online course is approved:

- Safe at Work - Learning objective: Acquire the knowledge and skills to scan your environment for personal safety risks and learn strategies to address commonly encountered safety hazards. 1-hour online course for direct service workers. To register for and take this free course, go to <http://mainedirectserviceworker.org/index.php/training/continuing-education> and click on "Personal Safety" to get started.

Brain Injury Association of America

Webinars for the Certified Brain Injury Specialist Program

<https://secure.biausa.org/SearchResult.aspx?CategoryID=61>

The cost is generally $55/webinar but multiple people can attend on one registered line

Michigan Traumatic Injury Online Training

Cognitive & Behavioral Consequences of Traumatic Brain Injury in Adults

<http://www.mitbitraining.org/Default.aspx>

Center for Neuro Skills

Online continuing education modules

<http://www.neuroskills.com/education/index.php>

Currently there is a $60/course processing and certification fee/person