| The PITC Curriculum   | Enhancing the relationship-based, responsive approach to early care promoted by the Program for Infant/Toddler Care (PITC), new PITC Curriculum planning tools and strategies support the efforts of family care providers and center-based teachers to facilitate high-quality individualized learning and healthy development for children from 0-3. Unique to the PITC Curriculum is a planning process based on reflection, observation, and documentation of play and learning that respects each child’s developing abilities, individual strengths and needs, family culture(s), and language(s). This planning process helps teachers deepen understanding, share meaning, support learning, and strengthen meaningful, caring relationships with infants and toddlers. | WestEd https://www.wested.org/resources/pitc-curriculum/   |
| Tender Care and Early Learning: Supporting Infants and Toddlers in Child Care Settings 2nd Ed.**Or most recent edition | This second edition of Tender Care and Early Learning describes HighScope's active learning approach for very young children who are in the sensory-motor state of development — the stage when children learn with their whole body and all their senses, and when they rely on trusted adults to support their learning adventures. Incorporating the latest research on infant and toddler development, this extensively revised and expanded manual provides both a rationale and specific strategies for each part of the Infant-Toddler Curriculum.   | Ordering Instructions for Publications — Web orders: Online store Phone: Call 800.40.PRESS Fax: 800.442.4FAX E-mail: PressStaff@highscope.org |
