

Traumatic Brain Injury Waiver Personal Attendant Staff Training Resources

CRI-Community Resources for Independence:

Improving the care you provide and learn more about the individuals served by taking video training courses. These courses are offered in a convenient online format.

www.crinet.org/PCAOOnlineTraining

Changing Minds: An Introduction to Person Centered Care:

A resource for those wanting to learn more about this important development in long-term care or for those wishing to teach others about aspects of person-centered care (PCC).

There is a link to download the full version of the training video that will appear on the confirmation page after submitting a form on this site.

http://miamioh.edu/cas/academics/centers/scripps/research/training-videos/person-centered-care-training-video_2015/

What Matters Most: A Guide for My Support and Care:

A tool for gathering and organizing information to guide the delivery of person-centered care at home.

They have a single user guide and a Modular Approach Guide that can be downloaded.

<http://miamioh.edu/cas/academics/centers/scripps/research/wmm/index.html>

7 Essential Elements of a Person-Centered Plan:

A quality, well-written person-centered plan includes and considers all seven elements listed. There are suggested resources, tools, and information to choose from when looking at person-centered planning.

<http://dodd.ohio.gov/7elements/Pages/default.aspx>

Person-Centered Care: Why It Means Everything & How to Provide It

An overview of Person-Centered care and the importance of the same.

<https://www.crisisprevention.com/Blog/Person-Centered-Care?content=exitol>

Person Centered Planning: (Michigan)

A guide to help Direct Care Support Professionals understand their role in the Person-Centered Planning Process.

http://www.cmhcm.org/provider/centrain/Training_Units/PCP.pdf