

WEST VIRGINIA COMMISSION for the DEAF and HARD OF HEARING

About WVCDHH

The West Virginia Commission for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing (WVCDHH) was established in 1989 by the legislature to aid West Virginians who are Deaf or Hard of Hearing in their efforts to live independent and productive lives by:

- ◆ Maintaining a clearinghouse of information
- ◆ Maintaining a list of qualified and certified interpreters and American Sign Language (ASL) teachers in West Virginia
- ◆ Conducting outreach to raise awareness
- ◆ Investigating the condition of Deaf and Hard of Hearing West Virginians

WVCDHH Services

- ◆ Telephonic Communication Device Loan Program
Long-term lending of TTYs, amplified phones, and captioned phones for income-qualified individuals with documented need.
- ◆ Interpreter Registry & Directory
Maintaining a registry and public directory of qualified interpreters in WV; coordinating the state testing system for interpreters.
- ◆ Training
Sponsoring trainings for interpreters, Deaf and Hard of Hearing individuals, and interested businesses or organizations.
- ◆ Accessible Smoke Alarms
Partnering with the Division of Rehabilitation Services to Distribute free accessible smoke alarms for Deaf and Hard of Hearing.

To schedule an awareness training, receive a directory, or for more information about a service, please contact us.

WVCDHH Vision

For Deaf and Hard of Hearing people in West Virginia.

Know Your Rights!

- ◆ There are laws in place to protect the rights of Deaf and Hard of Hearing individuals. They include:

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA)

The ADA states that people cannot be discriminated against because of a disability. Settings under this law include employment, transportation, public accommodation, communications, and governmental activities.

§504 of The Rehabilitation Act of 1973

The Rehabilitation Act states that people cannot be discriminated against because of a disability in programs conducted by Federal agencies, in programs receiving Federal financial assistance, in Federal employment, and in the employment practices of Federal contractors.

Individuals with Disabilities Act (IDEA)

The Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) requires public schools to provide public education to eligible children with disabilities in the least restrictive environment, while adhering to the child's individual needs.
