

Help eliminate HepC in West Virginia!

WVHAMP is a free training and mentoring program that links primary care providers with experts to learn how to treat chronic hepatitis C.

This program allows individuals with chronic hepatitis C to be receive care and be cured within their own community.

For more information or to register, visit www.wvrha.org/wvhamp

